In The Name Of God. Amen:

I, Alice A. de la Garza, formerly Alice A. Firstly: I will, give and devise to Frances Alice Foley, the daughter of Charles and Agnes Foley, of the City of Sacramento, the following described real property situate in the City of Sacramento, County of Sacramento, State of California, described as follows, to-wit:

Lot Number 5518 of the Bonita Vista Tract, as the said lot is described and delineated upon the map of said tract on file in the Recorder's Office of the County of Sacramento, State of California.

Secondly: I will, give and devise unto Francis A. McGinley and Mary Catherine McGinley, both of the City of Vallejo, County of Solano State of California, being children of Alice A. Walsh McGinley and Frank McGinley, now deceased, share and share alike, the real property situate in the City of Sacramento, County of Sacramento, State of California, and described as follows, to-wit:

The East one-half (E.½) of Lot Eight (8) in Block bounded by "H" and "I" and 28th and 29th Streets, in the said City of Sacramento.

Thirdly: I will, give and devise unto the Right Reverend Thomas Grace, of the City of Sacramento, State of California, the following real property situate in the County of Sacramento, State of California, described as follows, to-wit:

Lots Numbers 6802 and 6803 of Hillcrest Park, in the County of Sacramento, State of California, as the same are described and delineated upon the map thereof now on file in the Recorder's Office of the County of Sacramento, State of California, which said lands are also known as

Lot number Sixty-eight (68) of the H. J. Goethe Company Subdivision as the same is described and delineated upon the map of said Subdivision on file in the County Recorder's Office of Sacramento County, in trust, nevertheless, for the following uses and purposes:

After paying the necessary expenses, taxes, insurance and other charges against said property, he shall pay the income derived therefrom to the Catholic Orphan Asylum, at Grass Valley, California conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, or if said trustee shall deem it for the best interest of said Catholic Orphan Asylum, at Grass Valley, that said property shall be sold and the proceeds of said sale invested, then and in that event said Thomas Grace, as trustee, shall sell said property for the best terms possible, and for this purpose shall have power to grant, convey and transfer said real property, and shall invest the proceeds of said sale, and shall pay to said Catholic Orphan Asylum, at Grass Valley, the income from said proceeds, or in the event that my said trustee shall deem it for the best interest of said Catholic Orphan Asylum, at Grass Valley, that the proceeds of said sale shall be paid directly to the Mother Superior of said Catholic Orphan Asylum, at Grass Valley, to be used for the uses and purposes of said Asylum, then and in that event my said trustee shall pay over to said Mother Superior all of the proceeds derived from the sale of said property.

In the event that there be any legal objection to the trust hereby created, I will, give, devise and bequeath the said real property to Right Reverend Thomas Grace, of the City of Sacramento, County of Sacramento, State of California, without creating any trust or imposing any obligation upon him whatsoever.

I am of the opinion that he should, at such time as he may deem suitable, convert said property into a fund to be expended by him for the support of the Catholic Orphan Asylum, at Grass Valley, but said devise to him is absolutely for him to use as in his discretion he deems best.

Fourthly: I will, give and bequeath unto Joseph McEniry, of Fairfield, Solano County, California, my mother's gold buckle and all religious books now in my residence at 2805 "I" Street, in the City of Sacramento, County of Sacramento, State of California.

Tenthly: I give my executors, hereinafter named, full power and authority to sell any and all of my property, real, personal or mixed, either at public or private sale, without obtaining any order of Court therefor, and I also give my executors full power and authority to settle and compromise all claims or demands that may be due or owing to me, or my estate, or due from me, or my estate, to others, as in their discretion they may deem proper.

Lastly: I hereby nominate and appoint Cornelius Samuelson, of the City of Sacramento, State of California, and Robt. H. Schwab, of the City of Sacramento, State of California, the executors of this my last will and testament, and expressly declare and provide that no bond of any kind shall ever be required of them, or either of them, upon qualifying or for any other cause whatsoever.

I hereby declare that all of the property hereby devised or bequeathed is my separate property, having been owned or acquired by me, either prior to my marriage to my present husband, or purchased after such marriage with money earned by me prior to such marriage.

I hereby revoke all former wills by me at any time made.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this 4th day of June, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen.

Alice A. de la Garza. (Seal.)

Will.

I, Helen P. Mandeville, being of sound mind and discretion and aware of the uncertainty of life, do make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament.

First: I direct that all my just debts, the expenses of my last illness and my funeral expenses be paid.

Second: I give, devise and bequeath unto my friend, Rev. Charles E. Farrar, rector of Saint Paul's Church of Sacramento, California, the sum of Fifty Dollars, in appreciation of the many kindnesses he has shown me.

Third: I give unto my grandson, Merton R. Mandeville, the family Bible, and unto my son, James I. Mandeville, I give his father's portrait and the oil paintings, and as much of the furniture as he may care for; and unto Lily Mandeville, wife of John I. Mandeville, I give my lace shawl and my paisley shawl and the picture of James I. Mandeville when of the age of two years and my enameled brooch and any other of my personal jewelry or clothing she may desire.

Fourth: I give unto my niece, Fannie M. Tade, all furniture, books and pictures not otherwise disposed of, and the large and small rugs in my room. I request the said Fannie M. Tade to select some of my books as mementoes to be given to her sisters.

Fifth: I give, devise and bequeath unto my son, James I. Mandeville, 1576 South Sixth Street, Terre Haute, Indiana, one-half of the rest, residue and remainder of all property, real, personal or mixed of which I may die possessed or in which I may have any interest at the time of my death. (H.P.M.)

Sixth: I do not give and I intentionally omit to give any portion of my estate directly and absolutely to my son, John E. Mandeville, whose present whereabouts I do not know at the time of making this will, and I make no bequest to him directly for the reason that I believe him to be improvident and unable to take care of what I might otherwise give him.

Seventh: I give unto my son James I. Mandeville in trust for my son, John E. Mandeville, one-half of the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate. As such trustee, I desire and direct my son James I. Mandeville to pay to my son, John E. Mandeville the said one-half of my estate in such amounts and at such times as he, James I. Mandeville, shall in his judgment and discretion think best. In the event that I survive my son John E. then I give the said

I, Jennie A. Peltier, a resident of the City of Sacramento, County of Sacramento and State of California, daughter of the late Frederick Cox of said City, do make and publish this my last will and testament, as follows, to wit:

First: I direct my Executor hereinafter named to pay all my just debts and liabilities as soon after my death as is consistent with the orderly administration of my estate.

Second: I declare that my son Frederick Cox Jobson was on the 20th day of April, 1899, with my consent, adopted by my father, Frederick Cox, as his child and that since that date the relation of parent and child has existed between them. I give and bequeath to my said son, Frederick Cox Jobson, if he shall survive me, the sum of Fifteen Thousand Dollars, to be paid to him, without interest, whenever in the judgment of my Executor, the affairs of my estate permit.

Third: I give and bequeath to Hattie Cox, daughter of my late brother, Crawford J. Cox, if she survives me, the sum of One Thousand Dollars to be paid to her upon attaining the age of eighteen years, if that event shall occur after my death, and until the happening of that event, said sum of $1000.00 shall be by my Executor invested for her use and benefit, and the income therefrom paid to her from time to time. If at my death the said Hattie Cox has attained her majority, said sum shall be paid to her as soon after my death as the affairs of my estate permit.

Fourth: I give and bequeath to my sister, Mrs. Freda Maxwell, if she survives me, thirty shares of the capital stock of the John Breuner Company, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of California and engaged in business in the said City of Sacramento.

Fifth: To my beloved mother, Jennie A. Cox, if she shall survive me, I give and bequeath the sum of Twenty-five Hundred Dollars to be used by her for benevolent purposes among the poor and needy as she in her judgment and discretion may deem proper and best to assist and aid those who may be needy and deserving.

Sixth: I give and bequeath to the Protestant Orphan Asylum of the said City of Sacramento, the sum of Twenty-five Hundred Dollars to be paid to it as soon after my death as the affairs of my estate permit.

Seventh: All the rest and residue of my property of every kind and nature, real, personal and mixed and wheresoever situate, I give, devise and bequeath to my husband, George W. Peltier, and to my daughter, Jeanette Peltier, absolutely and unconditionally, each one-half thereof, and as the separate property of each, and if either shall die before I do, then all such residue shall go to and vest absolutely in the survivor, provided that if my daughter Jeanette shall die before I do, leaving issue who survive me, such issue shall take by right of representation their mother's share of my estate which she would have received by this will if she had survived me. If at the time of my death, my said daughter is under the age of twenty-one years, her share of my estate shall be held and controlled by her father and the income therefrom, or as much thereof as he in his judgment deems proper to use for such purposes, applied by him to her support and education until she attains said age, at which time she shall be entitled to and shall receive the possession and enjoyment of her share of my estate as given to her by this will with

First,- I give, devise and bequeath the real property upon which I now live, and being the Lot Number Four in the Block bounded by R and S and Fifth and Sixth Streets of the City of Sacramento, County of Sacramento, State of California, to my sons Frank A. Gardner, and Charles A. Gardner, and my daughter Minnie L. Junior, and my grandson Irving Brown, share and share alike.

Second,- I give, devise and bequeath to my sons Benjamin W. Garnder and Elmer Gardner, children by my second wife, the sum of Five Dollars each; and I further direct that my said son Benjamin W. Gardner be relieved from any and all liability for any indebtedness which may be due from him to me at the time of my death. The reason I give no more to my said sons Benjamin W. Gardner and Elmer Gardner is that I have heretofore given to their mother, Annie G. Gardner, property which I assume they will inherit from her, and I desire my other children to have the property which I now own and which is hereinabove specifically given to them.

Third,- I give and bequeath to my grandchildren, Edith M. Lickus, Harold Gardner and Willie Gardner, children of my deceased son, William H. Gardner, the sum of one Dollar each. The reason I give no more to these children is that they are already possessed of sufficient property, and not because I do not care for them.

Fourth,- I give, devise and bequeath to my sons Frank A. Gardner, and Charles A. Gardner, my daughter Minnie L. Junior, and my grandson, Irving Brown, share and share alike, all of the rest, residue and remainder of my property, of whatsoever kind the same may be or wheresoever situated.

Fifth,- I further direct that my said grandson Irving Brown, and Mrs. Clara V. Lansing, who has been my housekeeper for the past thirteen years, be permitted to remain and live in the house in which I now live, situated on the real property hereinbefore devised, during the period of the administration of my estate. And I further direct that my Executors, hereinafter named, pay to the said Mrs. Clara V. Lansing, during the period of the administration of my said estate, all moneys which shall be received as rents from the houses situated on said real property hereinabove described, after deducting therefrom a sufficient amount to pay the expenses of necessary repairs to said property and taxes during the said period, for the maintenance of said Mrs. Clara V. Lansing and my said grandson, Irving Brown.

Sixth, - I hereby nominate and appoint my son, Charles O. Gardner and my son-in-law, Eugene A. Junior, the Executors of this, my last will and testament, and I request that they be permitted to act as such without bonds: and I hereby confer upon my said Executors full power and authority to sell all or any part of my estate except that specifically bequeathed hereby, at either public or private sale, with or without notice, as they deem best, and without the order of any court therefor.

Lastly, - I hereby revoke any and all former wills by me made.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand this 12th day of June, in the year 1916.

I, Robert T. Wright, of Rio Linda, Sacramento County, California, do make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills and hereby disposing of all my property, real or personal, wheresoever situated, which I now own or may hereafter acquire.

Item one: I direct that all my just debts and the expenses of my last sickness and burial be paid out of my estate before the legacies hereinafter given.

Item two: I direct that my estate be divided into two equal portions, and I dispose of these portions as follows:

(a) One half or portion I give to my six brothers and sisters, hereinafter named, share and share alike; provided that if any said brother or sister, except my brother Thomas, shall die before me and shall leave children surviving, such children shall take their parents share by representation; and provided, as to my brother Thomas that if he shall die before me, his children by his first wife, Addie Lawson Wright, if any survive him, shall take his share by representation; and further provided that if my brother Thomas shall have died before me with no children by his first wife surviving, or if any other brother or sister shall have died before me with no children surviving then the share of the one so dying without such children shall be used to augment equally the shares of my brothers and sisters who survive me or who leave children to represent them.

(b) The other half or portion of my estate I give to my late wife's brothers and sister, hereinafter named, share and share alike; provided that if any said brother or sister shall die before me and leave children surviving, then the said children shall take the parent's share by representation; and further provided that if any said brother or sister of my wife shall have died before me with no children surviving, then the share of the one so dying without such children shall be used to augment equally the shares of those who survive me or who leave children to represent them. The names of my late wife's brothers and sister are: Alexander Bell, George P. Bell, Thomas C. Bell, Robert M. Bell, John S. Bell, who is now unmarried, and Margaret Bell Cameron.

(c) The word "children" as used in this item means "child or children".

Item three: I nominate as executors of this my will my brother Walter G. Wright and my wife's brother John S. Bell, or either of them. They shall have full and complete power to sell and convey any and all real estate which I may own without any judicial leave or decree unless by law such leave or decree is indispensable to the exercise of such power. I direct that they shall not sacrifice any property by a precipitate or forced sale, but shall be allowed three years in their discretion to make a favorable sale. I desire that so far as may be legal to do so, they shall not be required to give any bond as executors, and that they shall be exonerated from onerous requirements as far as may be legal.
